

CUUNA PUBLICITY OFFICER AND EDITOR

Name: Nat Rudarakanchana

College & Subject: Girton, Philosophy (2nd year)

Position: Publicity Officer and Editor

A Bit of Background

- I grew up in Hong Kong to Thai parents. Studied at Red Cross Nordic United World College (RCNUWC) in Norway, alongside people from over 80 different countries;
- Participated in and organized MUNs in Norway, and was chair of the journalism service there.

More Recent and Relevant Experience

- Was deputy editor of the international section of The Cambridge Student in Michelmas 2009;
- Worked closely with the group that produced the last edition of The UN Student, and contributed an article for the publication;
- Am currently learning how to use InDesign in more detail, by working for a Triple Helix publication;
- Have done journalistic editorial internships, so editing and writing is in general not new to me;
- Past Academic Officer of iCUSU, so know how to work in a team and with international students.

Some Thoughts

- We can raise CUUNA's profile by: co-operating with the newspapers, creating posters and termcards, raising the profile and number of the publications, and forging closer ties with international or development-minded Cambridge societies.
- We can improve the publication by: finding guest writers and funding, (perhaps) revamping the layout, and producing and distributing more regularly and effectively.
